1. Italian tax code: the tax code (codice fiscale) is a 16 alphanumeric digit identity code used in all interaction with government agencies and public administration in Italy. It is issued by the Agenzia delle Entrate (Revenue Agency) of the Ministry of Economy and Finance. Application must be made at the local office of the Agenzie delle Entrate upon presentation of a valid passport. A Codice Fiscale may also be issued by an Italian Embassy in an applicant's home country. This is a compulsory document to register at the University.
2. Residence: a residential address (also known as permanent address or home address) is the actual physical street address where you reside permanently. For international applicants, it often coincides with an address in their home country.
