

BORDERS, REFUGEES, AND HEALTH: CASE STUDIES FROM UGANDA

Registration is open for the workshop "Borders, Refugees, and Health" (18 hours, April-May 2024).

OBJECTIVES

The series of lessons - taught by Ugandan faculty members from Makerere University - is interdisciplinary and aimed at training students interested in the dynamics of transformation on the African continent and, more generally, in issues of development, health, social change.

PROSPECTIVE PARTICIPANTS

The program is aimed at students enrolled in UniTo's Bachelor's and Master's degree programs.

PROGRAM

The seminar-style series of meetings will be held entirely in English and run from April 29th to May 14th, 2025. The lecturers will be: Fred Bateganya; Helen Nambalirwa Nkabala; Stevens Aguto Odongoh.

The workshop can be recognized for 3 cfu as "Other Activities." It consists of 6 meetings of 3 hours, according to the below schedule, and a minimum attendance of 70% is required. At the end, students are expected to present a paper on one of the topics covered.

Schedule:

1. April 29, 2-5 p.m

Helen Nambalirwa Nkabala

Categories of Refugees in Africa: A Deep Dive of Environment Refugees

2. April 30, 2-5 p.m

Fred Bateganya

Health Access Challenges of Most at Risk Populations: Hepatitis B among Truckers and CSW along Uganda- Kenya Border

3. May 6, 2-5 p.m.

Helen Nambalirwa Nkabala

The Relationships between Refugees and Host Communities in Uganda

4. May 7, 2-5 p.m.

Fred Bateganya

Refugees and Cash Transfers in Uganda

5. May 13, 2-5 p.m.

Stevens Aguto Odongoh

Uganda's self-reliant refugee policies: Between politics and humanitarianism

6. May 14, 2-5 p.m.

Stevens Aguto Odongoh

Rituals of Home Coming: Polluted bodies and border crossing among the Acholi

Classes will take place at Campus Luigi Einaudi, lecture hall LL5.

REGISTRATION

You can click here to register, or follow this QR code:

For any queries or information, you can contact Alessandro Gusman: alessandro.gusman@unito.it

