

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI TORINO

INSTRUCTIONS FOR STUDENTS: HOW TO REQUEST THE ONLINE EXAM

1. In case of in-person exams, you can request to take the exam online if you are in one of the following conditions:
 - a) frailty (*);
 - b) residence or domicile outside region;
 - c) temporary absence from the regional territory for provable reasons.
2. When enrolling for the exam session, it is necessary to follow the instructions provided by the teacher on the page of the teaching programme and write in the "Note" section that you are in one of the three conditions that allow you to take the online exam.
3. The University can demand further in-depth analysis on what is self-certified.
In case of a false statement, you can be cancelled from the list of students enrolled for the on-line exam.

(*) Students with conditions of frailty: subjects in possession of the recognition of severe disability and those who have a certificate issued by medical and legal institutions, certifying a risk condition deriving from immunodepression or from oncological pathologies or from undergoing related life-saving therapies.