- Do not forget to check the Academic Glossary!

PART 1

Your exchange at UniTo and the coronavirus preventive measures

Please note that the following information is based on the current Government guidelines and it is therefore subject to change!

Your exchange and the Coronavirus preventive measures

The University responsibilities:

Our priority at all times is to make sure our University is as safe as possible and minimize the risk to everyone onsite.

- Regularly cleaning our buildings with antiviral disinfectant
- Making more soap and hand sanitizer available
- Implementing social distancing (e.g. reducing the number of people onsite)
- Ensuring our buildings are properly ventilated with a good supply of fresh air

The University will keep you updated with any specific changes to its activities caused by Coronavirus (for example, changes to the delivery of courses). Some changes will need to be made on little or no notice, e.g. as a result of circumstances outside our control or government restrictions.

International Affairs

University
of Torino

Your responsibilities:

To help keep yourself and the people around you (including fellow students and staff at the University) safe and to ensure that you are able to benefit from your exchange programme you must:

a) Follow all instructions and rules issued by the University in respect of life on Universities venues.

Information on rules and requirements are available as part of the University's "Coronavirus: updates for UniTO Community" section of our website, which you should familiarise yourself with:

<https://en.unito.it/coronavirus-updates-unito-community>

Your exchange and the Coronavirus preventive measures

Some of these regulations include:

- Show your Covid digital certificate
- Register your entry and exit from Unito venues using the My.unito App and QR codes;
- Maintain social distancing of 1-2 metres
- Book your place in lecture halls and classrooms
- Wearing a mask is compulsory in University buildings

Back to UniTo: access to University venues

Your exchange and the Coronavirus preventive measures

Your responsibilities

b) follow all relevant guidance and instructions issued by the Italian government on what you can and can't do at the moment:

- Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation: information about limitations in force to/from certain countries, possible quarantine, restrictions, FAQ etc.: Here
- Italian Ministry of Health: Here

Your exchange and the Coronavirus preventive measures

International Affairs

University
of Torino

Your responsibilities

c) When you are out and about in Turin e.g. going on public transport, eating out, visiting shops and museums etc... you must comply with any specific instructions issued by the operator of that venue/service.

COVID-19 How to...

If you feel like you might have suspicious symptoms related to COVID-19 make sure to:

- If you are an international student and you HAVE NOT a family doctor in Torino (e.g. if you are an extra-UE student who did not register with the Italian National Health System and/or you have not chosen a family doctor yet) call the Continuità Assistenziale - Emergency Doctor Service 116117, at night-time (from 8 pm to 8 am) or weekends (from 10 am to 8 am on the closest working date) and you will receive the necessary information.
- If you are an international student and you HAVE a family doctor in Torino ☐ get in touch with your doctor and, in general, with your nearest local health authority (ASL)
- Read CAREFULLY THE HANDBOOK for Incoming students (pp.28-30)

❖ Students not yet enrolled (future student):

- Contact us if you are still «future student»
- CampusNet: access not allowed.
- MyUnito+ App: no full access to services

❖ Enrolled students (current student):

Use your MyUnito credentials to access:

- CampusNet
- Moodle
- Webex
- Student Booking to attend the in-person activities
- MyUniTo+ App
