Test for the Assessment of Minimum Requirements (TARM – TOLC)

What is it?

It's a test used to assess the prior knowledge of Italian/English language of the candidate according to the program he/she is enrolled in

Is it a selective test? NO!
But it is mandatory in order to enrol

What happens if I don't pass the test?

You will be assigned an Additional Educational Obligation (OFA)

Test for the Assessment of Minimum Requirements (TARM) dedicated to international students

Applicants are not required to pass an admission exam in order to enrol in a program without a fixed quota of places, but they must sit a minimum requirements assessment test (TARM), provided through the TOLC test of CISIA. The TOLC is a non selective test, but it is mandatory and it is used to assess the prior knowledge of the candidate. Different TOLC tests correspond to different degree programs.

If you do not obtain the minimum score required, you will be able to complete your enrolment, but you will be assigned an OFA according to your citizenship and the course you are enrolling in.

Additional Educational Obligation (OFA)  for Italian-taught undergraduate degree programs' applicants only
