

Visiting Professor Program Academic Year 2023/2024

TEACHING COMMITMENT: 30 hours

COURSE TITLE

Africa and Migration

TEACHING PERIOD

2nd term

SCIENTIFIC AREA

Geography

LANGUAGE USED TO TEACH

English

COURSE SUMMARY

The course will offer an introduction to mobility processes in and from the African continent, analyzing their impact on the economic, political, ecological, cultural, social and gender dimension. A focus on case studies will provide the opportunity to discuss these topics in practical terms referring to specific contexts.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Students will acquire knowledge and understanding of the wide phenomenon of mobility and migration in and from the African continent. Methodological instruments, key-concepts, sources of data will be described and critically analyzed with reference to the international up-date literature.

TUTORSHIP ACTIVITIES

N/A

LAB ACTIVITIES

N/A

OTHER ACTIVITIES BESIDES THE COURSE

Beside the course, seminars and conferences will be addressed to PhD and research fellows of the department of Cultures, Politics, and Society.

VISITING PROFESSOR PROFILE

Qualifications required:

Profound knowledge of Human Geography topics related to the African continent and African mobility and migration issues, and of the methodological instruments applied to this field;

Wide experience in teaching courses in Human geography in connection with Africa and migration;

Research interests related to human geography, political ecology, mobility, migration, gender, citizenship, race, marginality, with specific attention to the African continent and the African diaspora.

CONTACT REFERENT

Cecilia Pennacini

cecilia.pennacini@unito.it