

Visiting Professor Program Academic Year 2023/2024

TEACHING COMMITMENT: 20 hours

COURSE TITLE

Law and Society in Asia

TEACHING PERIOD

1st term

SCIENTIFIC AREA

Comparative law

LANGUAGE USED TO TEACH

English

COURSE SUMMARY

The course analyses current legal issues in Asia focusing on India (16 hours), South-East Asia and/or Islamic countries (20 hours). The visiting professor will teach the part related to South-East Asia and/or Islamic countries. As for thematic focus, the course will analyse one or more of the following issues: legal protection of the environment; family law and women's rights; legal condition of indigenous people, disadvantaged classes and minorities; dispute resolution and access to justice.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

The course aims at enabling students to understand the interaction of different kinds of rules and of different actors in a specific context, to understand the impact of legal regimes on societal issues, and to be able to analyse local issues from a global perspective.

TUTORSHIP ACTIVITIES

N/A

LAB ACTIVITIES

N/A

OTHER ACTIVITIES BESIDES THE COURSE

Willingness to hold seminars and take part in workshop addressed to PhD students and research fellows is highly appreciated but it is not a mandatory requirement.

VISITING PROFESSOR PROFILE

The Visiting Professor needs to have:

- proven research experience on topics and areas described in the course summary (documented by publications and research activities);
- proven experience in teaching courses in English at University level on topics and areas described in the course summary.

CONTACT REFERENT

Domenico Francavilla

domenico.francavilla@unito.it