

Visiting Professor Program Academic Year 2024/2025

TEACHING COMMITMENT: 18 hours

COURSE TITLE

The Rediscovery of Teaching and the Transition from the "Modern School" to a "New School"

TEACHING PERIOD

2nd term

SCIENTIFIC AREA

Education Sciences

LANGUAGE USED TO TEACH

English, Italian

COURSE SUMMARY

Principal issues of course:

1. Beyond the contemporary ideology of "Learning" as ultimate ideal of school and education;
2. The Rediscovery of Teaching;
3. Human Person, Education, Freedom.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

1. Critically examine today's ideology of "learning" as supreme educational ideal;
2. Understand the distinction and relationship between teaching and learning;
3. Understand the distinction and relationship between instructing, training and educating;
4. Understand the relationship between teaching, education and freedom.

OTHER ACTIVITIES BESIDES THE COURSE

Seminars and conferences addressed to PhD students and research fellows;
Dissemination conferences into the schools.

---

VISITING PROFESSOR PROFILE

Visiting Professor must be Professor with long experience and wide international estimation in the disciplinary fields of pedagogy, educational theory, teacher education and philosophy of education and school. He/she must have extensive knowledge of the issues of teacher education, carried out significant research on these topics and collaborated on or directed specific university and scientific journal projects, dedicated to them. His/her publications must have attracted interest inside and outside the university and school worlds, and conferred international cultural prestige on the author.

CONTACT REFERENT

Carlo Mario Fedeli
carlo.fedeli@unito.it