

Visiting Professor Program Academic Year 2024/2025

TEACHING COMMITMENT: 36 hours

COURSE TITLE

Chinese Law

TEACHING PERIOD

2nd term

SCIENTIFIC AREA

Comparative Law

LANGUAGE USED TO TEACH

English

COURSE SUMMARY

The course introduces the study of Chinese law and legal culture and provides an overview of contemporary methodologies and research approaches. It will cover matters ranging from historical transformations to most recent developments of the Chinese legal system and contextualize the discussed issues within China's economic, social, cultural and political settings. Specific topics will be inter alia Chinese legal philosophy and traditional law, legal transfer and the transformation of law in the 20th Century, PRC's legal history and approaches to the rule of law, current legal issues of China's public and private law as well as international legal dimensions of China's legal development.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

At the end of the course, the students should have acquired a general understanding of the evolution of Chinese law, and be able to critically analyze its main features, including case law.

VISITING PROFESSOR PROFILE

The visiting professor should have proven experience teaching Chinese Law in English, with particular reference to Chinese Law and Culture, Chinese Legal History, and PRC's Legal and Judicial Reforms. He/she must have a PhD in Law, and be a professor/researcher fellow at a foreign (i.e.: not Italian) University or Research Institute. Applications by candidates, who have already taught international classes are strongly encouraged.

CONTACT REFERENT

Simona Novaretti

simona.novaretti@unito.it