COURSE TITLE

Administrative Law

TEACHING PERIOD

2nd term

SCIENTIFIC AREA

Public Law and Administrative Law

LANGUAGE USED TO TEACH

English

COURSE SUMMARY

The course aims at giving the students an overview of the rules governing the relationship between Public Administration and private actors (people or companies). The students will have the possibility to address different topics concerning the role of the rule of law in the regulation of the public powers as well as the limits to private actions posed by the government and the local authorities, the mechanisms for ensuring legality, transparency and accountability in executive decision-making.

The course aims at reflecting a wider dimension of the administrative law, starting from the analysis of the rising of Administrative law in a historical perspective and by underlining the Constitutional frameworks that governs the character of the administrative law. The course will then deepen the rules governing the public law-private law divide also by analyzing the rules of public contract and the privatization v. public values protection. Finally the topic of security, sovereignty and globalization will be addressed.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

The course introduces students to the general principles of administrative law. On successful completion of the course the students will be able to: apply the rules governing the administrative powers and decisions and to verify their abidance and compliance in order to pursue the public interest by balancing the people rights; to read and to interpret the relevant case law.
