COURSE TITLE

British Constitution in comparative perspective

TEACHING PERIOD

2nd term

SCIENTIFIC AREA

Public Law

LANGUAGE USED TO TEACH

English

COURSE SUMMARY

The course aims to convey to students the basic notions of UK public law and to introduce them to the specific functioning of UK institutions, with an approach that also allows comparison with other anglo-saxon legal systems as far as it concerns the form of government, the complex institutional balance and the protection of rights.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

The course aims to teach students the main concepts of public law (constitution, rule of law, separation of powers, sources of law, forms of state and government ...), applied in particular to the UK system.

VISITING PROFESSOR PROFILE

The presence a professor specialized in public law and comparative public law who is able to teach the common law system and more specifically the British constitution is required.
