

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI TORINO

ID

VP60_DIP_SCB

Visiting Professor Program Academic year 2022/2023

TEACHING COMMITMENT: 12 hours

COURSE TITLE

FORENSIC PATHOLOGY

TEACHING PERIOD

1st term

SCIENTIFIC AREA

Forensic Medicine

LANGUAGE USED TO TEACH

English

COURSE SUMMARY

- The pathophysiology of death;
- The pathology of wounds (blunt, sharp and gunshot trauma);
- Mechanical asphyxia;
- Heat injuries and electrical fatalities.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

To critically evaluate forensic problems related to the ascertainment of death and its causes.

TUTORSHIP ACTIVITIES

N/A

LAB ACTIVITIES

N/A

OTHER ACTIVITIES BESIDES THE COURSE

Seminars for resident students (Scuola di Specializzazione in Medicina Legale - Università di Torino)

VISITING PROFESSOR PROFILE

Candidate must hold

- MD degree and postgraduate professional training and/or residency in Forensic Pathology and/or Anatomic/Clinical Pathology
- a robust CV in the field of forensic sciences documented by: academic position and/or a government official position in the field of forensic/criminal investigations; publications in peer-reviewed international journals in the subject category "legal medicine"; other relevant forensic publications; participation as invited speaker to national/international forensic congresses
- fluency in English

CONTACT PERSON AT THE DEPARTMENT

Prof. Carlo Robino

carlo.robino@unito.it