

Direzione Ricerca,
Innovazione e
Internazionalizzazione

UNIVERSITÀ DI TORINO

ID

VP_131_MAN

Visiting Professor Program Academic Year 2025/2026

TEACHING COMMITMENT: 21 hours

COURSE TITLE

Advanced Capital Markets

TEACHING PERIOD

I semester

SCIENTIFIC AREA

Economics of Financial Intermediaries

LANGUAGE USED TO TEACH

English

COURSE SUMMARY

The course aims to provide students with in-depth knowledge of the capital market, for a valid preparation for work.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

At the end of teaching and individual study, students are expected to be able to:

- remember the illustrated concepts (knowledge);
- apply the notions acquired by solving exercises (understanding and application);
- demonstrate critical ability, with independent judgment on the topics covered (understanding and application);
- show communication skills, through comparison with classmates (understanding and application).

OTHER ACTIVITIES BESIDE THE COURSE

Seminars for PhD students and/or colleagues

VISITING PROFESSOR PROFILE

The ideal candidate for the Visiting Professor position should have extensive expertise in banking and finance, with a strong background in areas such as the economic analysis of banks and banking sectors, competition and efficiency, financial liberalization and deregulation, corporate governance, executive compensation, FinTech, and mergers and acquisitions. This expertise should align closely with the course program, which includes topics such as bank regulation, liquidity management of banks, bank capital, business models and liquidity management, securitization, and FinTech. A strong teaching and research record in these areas, along with the ability to deliver lectures in English to large groups, is essential.

CONTACT REFERENT

Cristina Rovera
cristina.rovera@unito.it